Dear Mr.Hering,

Subject: Limit of shares participation on the Company exceeded

We come hereby to inform that the participation of Amundi on Cia. Hering's ("Company") capital has exceeded the 5% (ordinary shares) limit.

To this respect, we provide the following information requested by you, relative to Amundi and the participations held by it on the Company.

I – Information related to Amundi:

Amundi, French company (a corporation) with capital stock of EUR 678,002,350, registered at Registre Du Commerce ET des Sociétés (Commerce and Companies Registry) of Paris under the number 437,574,452. With headquarters located at n° 90 boulevard Pasteur, 75015 Paris, France, Amundi is accredited by the French Regulation entity (Autorité des Marchés Financiers – AMF) as an investment management company, under the number GP 040000036.

To create Amundi, two big groups of the banking sector - Crédit Agricole e Société Générale – have united their expertise in asset management. This partnership reflects the shared vision of the two groups in relation to asset management, offering answers to the new challenges that the sector has been facing and allowing a more effective understanding of the clients. Amundi occupies a leading position in France and Europe, besides its solid representations looking to realize its ambitious international projects.

With EUR 669.9 Billion in assets under management, Amundi is one the market leaders in this sector.

Amundi's management teams operate on the main financial centers of Europe (Paris, London, and Milan), Asia (Japan, Hong Kong and Singapore), Australia and the United States. The investments cover all asset classes and the main currencies (Euro, Yen, US Dollars, GB Pounds). Amundi relies on a solid implementation – more than 30 countries in the 5 continents – and is compromised in offering its clients a relationship characterized at the same time by proximity and a long term vision. Amundi's sales network offers:

- A meeting point to elaborate and propose specific investment solutions to its clients needs.
- Excelent services in all the phases of the value chain, conquering markets by quality, proactive approach and efficiency.
